Kevin Day
Staff Services Analyst

Kevin joined the California Building Standards Commission (CBSC) in September 2010 as a Staff Services Analyst. His responsibilities at the commission are diverse and matched only by his enthusiastic demeanor. He tracks and provides bill analysis for pertinent legislation, supports the CBSC technical staff on a variety of levels, and serves as a buyer and contract analyst. Most recently Kevin played an integral role in the implementation of the commission's new website format.

Prior to his appointment with the CBSC, he worked as an Office Technician for the State and Consumer Services Agency (SCSA). In his role at Agency, he provided administrative assistance to the General Counsel and the Insurance Advisor, and helped facilitate the quarterly SCSA Business Continuity Committee meetings.

Before entering State service Kevin worked in several areas of the private sector, which included commercial maintenance, telecommunications and the restaurant industry. Kevin is an avid gamer, enthusiastic reader and student of popular culture and history. He is currently pursuing an Associate of Arts degree at Sacramento City College.
